

At 14 years, Charlotte was concerned about an upper canine which had failed to erupt and was impacted in the roof of her mouth

An upper deciduous canine was retained and the permanent canine was impacted in the palate

The buried canine was exposed surgically and the deciduous (baby) canine extracted.
The canine then grew slowly into the roof of the mouth.

exposed

Dr Horobin used the Damon 3mx brace

Progress after 4 months

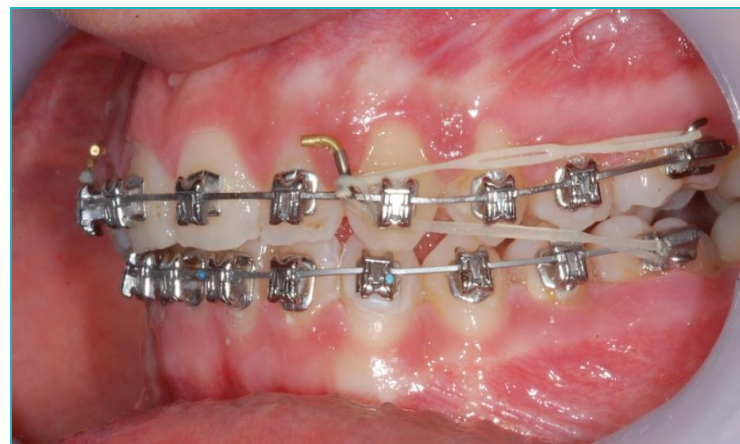

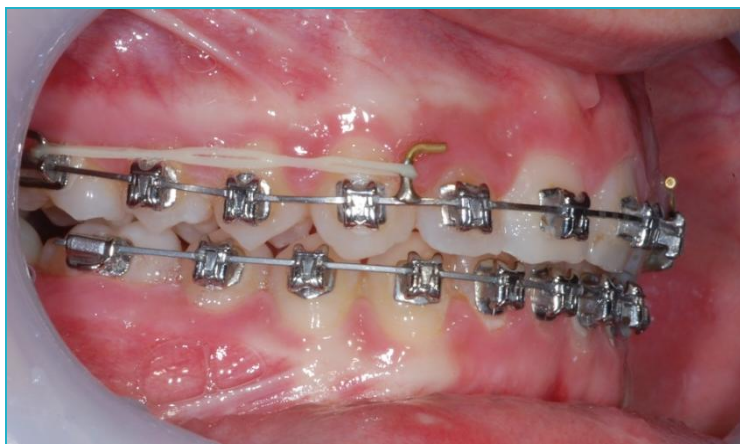

Progress after 9 months

Progress after 15 months

Progress after 22 months

Upper arch sequence

1

2

3

4

Finished Result after 27 months

Before

After

Before

After

Smile Created by

Confidence in your smile